Dear Learners,

Welcome to your B2 Revision Class! At this advanced-intermediate stage, you're developing precision, fluency, and flexibility in your use of French. This session is meant to help you reinforce key grammar and communication strategies so you can express your ideas clearly, interact with native speakers confidently, and handle complex conversations.

What You Can Do at B2 (CEFR Level):

- Understand the main ideas of complex texts on both concrete and abstract topics.
- Interact with a degree of fluency that makes regular conversation with native speakers comfortable for both parties.
- Express yourself clearly and in detail on a wide range of subjects.
- Participate effectively in debates, discussions, or formal exchanges of ideas.

Grammar and Sentence Structures

- Fine use of subjonctif présent et passé
- Past & future tenses
- Reported speech
- Passive voice in different tenses
- Advanced logical connectors for cause, consequence, concession
- Participial constructions
- Conditional and hypothetical structures
- Emphatic constructions

Note that these grammar points are only examples of what may be covered. Your teacher will adapt the class content depending on the group's needs and their own pedagogical approach.

Communication Skills

- Explaining abstract ideas clearly
- Justifying opinions with structured arguments
- Evaluating options and giving nuanced points of view
- Participating in debates or formal discussions
- Using a wide range of connectors to organise your discourse logically
- Managing different levels of language formality (registers)

This class will help you consolidate your ability to speak with ease, understand nuance, and present your ideas in a structured and convincing way. You're preparing for confident, sophisticated communication—and possibly even C1 level in the future!
